FOUR POINTS TRADING Co.

OUR STORY

We have always been a creative, crafty couple . . .

Our home is one of constant adventures and hands on learning experiments. Scott works his "magic" during the day designing theme parks and I work mine teaching Art and cultural Studies.

In 2016 we found ourselves on a different adventure. One that took us on a trip down memory lane. Our then, very inquisitive 4-year-old constantly asked about our favorite childhood things.

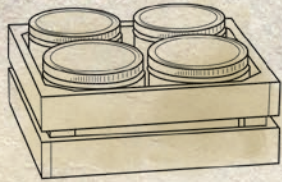

Having recently lost my mom, I found some of her questions hard to answer, as I did not remember. Wanting to find a way to unlock our lost memories, we encouraged her quizzes.

Soon, memories Scott and I had shelved years ago were coming back to us accompanied by all the nostalgic scents those memories held. Brooklyn's innocent and curious soul made ours yearn to remember, to find a way to relive a piece of our childhood so we could then share it with her.

So, every night after work we turned our kitchen into a laboratory, making different candles every week. Each one specifically chosen to bring us back to a time and a place we longed for. After sharing them with family and friends, it was determined that everyone needed the same, simple reminders.

With that, Four Points Trading Company was born! We are a small family run business that believes every scent tells a story, and this is ours.

OUR PROCESS

Our candles are created with distinct and classic fragrances designed to trigger your olfactory memories. Each one having the power to evoke experiences and nostalgic emotions. With every flicker of the flame, creating a one-of-a-kind atmosphere that will entice all your senses.

At Four Points Trading Co. we use only the highest quality ingredients. We pour each of our candles by hand in small batches. Our wax is 100% soy, produced from domestically grown soybeans. Every candle has a cotton braided, lead, and zinc free, eco-friendly wick. All fragrances are paraben and phthalate free.

Our products are all natural, vegan friendly and made entirely in the USA.

My mom always told us she was chasing a Gypsy wind! I'm not sure we ever truly knew what that meant until now. This reminiscent scent embodies the free spirit in us all. Invite your gypsy soul to travel on the tails of the every changing wind as it reminds you to love, live, laugh and always accept that in life, it is what it is!

Is there someone in your life who helped you to choose a path of strength, someone who taught you to stand your ground?

Our Rustic remembrance set is made up of lingering blends that are the ultimate combination of nostalgia and memory.

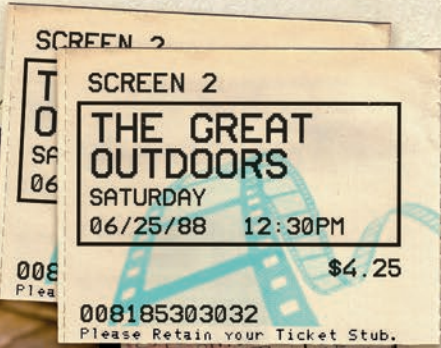

It may be your grandfathers chair they take you back too, that outdoor grill you learned to master, your favorite pair of boots or the first saddle you ever rode all while sipping whiskey neat and puffing on a pipe.

In the summers, I loved making popcorn to take to the drive-in with my family. The greasy butter stains it left on the paper bag were deliciously messy, and the buttery aroma of popped corn kernels are a must-have for any movie marathon!

Hold onto the memories...
They will hold to you.

Memory is the scribe of the soul.
- Aristotle

After lighting my fruit loops candle I read the accompanying paper last night. It mentioned how the candle scents are meant to evoke a memory, and you couldn't be more right. Saturday mornings from my childhood are revisited every time I open the lid! Thank you for transporting me back to those happy times. What a gift.

- Alice B.

These are the best smelling candles. They are not overpowering, seriously smell amazing, and burn so evenly and nicely!
